

04 TENDER S.U.R.E.

LOCATION AND SITE

The Central Business District of Bangalore is located in Ashoknagar.

It was established as the Military Cantonment of the British Colonial Army and as such retains many colonial features by way of architecture, culture, names of roads and neighborhoods, and religious influences.

This area was chosen for redesign as it comes under the Area Based Development for Bangalore's proposal to the National Smart City Mission launched by the Indian Central Government in 2015.
