PHASE 1 MAYO HALL JUNCTION

Project Role: Trainee

Team Size: Three People

Mayo Hall Plaza is at the junction of Residency Road and Commissariat Road. The name comes from Mayo Hall - a colonial era building now used as the Bangalore District Courthouse.

The two roads meet at uneven levels. The challenge was to design a plaza to accommodate for this grade difference. Being a heavily pedestrianized area, the plaza had to be big enough for people to be comfortable enough to use.

Personal involvement in the project:

1. to formulate surface design options
2. Supervise construction on site.
