

05 KR MARKET

LOCATION AND SITE

KR Market is located at the southern edge of the Bangalore Pettah (Chickpete)
- The oldest part of Bangalore dating to 1537.

Flanked by Mysore Road along its southern edge, it also serves as a major transit exchange with a metro station and a major local and intercity bus station in its precinct.

The market began in the early 1920s when the first building was built.

The next major infrastructural development happened in 1992 when the central square market was built to accommodate the expanding number of vendors.

A metro station opened in mid 2017 bringing the medieval district into the 21st century.

CHICKPETE, BANGALORE, INDIA

12°57'56.4"N 77°34'34.3"E
909m (2982') AMSL

